Next Sunday

23rd Sunday of the Year

22nd Sunday of the Year

Our faith is a wonderful gift and a blessing, but Jesus warns us how it can go wrong and what we need to do to make it true and authentic.

Please remember in your prayers those who are sick everyone on the family prayer ministry prayer requests. and all those whose needs are not known to us.

General Data Protection Rules (GDPR)

The rules on Data Protection have changed. The new rules have an impact on the way the Church (Diocese or Parish) gathers and uses information, and the Diocese has issued a Privacy Notice, available in full on its website. (It only applies to information about living persons.)

Everyone has rights about how their personal data is managed, and the diocese is committed to ensuring that this is properly and securely managed in accordance with the relevant data protection laws.

The Diocese, or the parish, may have, for example, your name and contact details, gender, date of birth/age, marital status, nationality. It might also have financial information (e.g. bank details) and details of giving/donations. If you are a volunteer it may hold information obtained as a result of any background checks.

Your personal data may be used, for example, to communicate with you about news, activities and events, to process donations or other payments you make to the Church, in carrying out our activities, including baptisms, weddings and funerals and for pastoral and spiritual care.

We keep personal data only as long as is necessary, and then delete it.

Information about the diocesan approach to GDPR and the new 'Privacy Notice' applicable to the diocese and the parishes is on the diocesan website www.gallowaydiocese.org.uk/privacy-policy-and-gdpr and on our websites www.standrewsdumfries.org.uk and www.stcolumbasannan.org.uk.
